My mom's car stopped suddenly on a busy road. She called on me, but I was not able to arrive her quickly. Where I arrived, she told me the owner of the restaurant across from where the car stopped gathered his worker and helped to move the car next to the curb so it is safe.

It was a really nice gesture and it was very selfish of them to help. So after sort things out of my mother's car, I decided to go back the restaurant and buy dinner from there. But definite their gesture was a great example of a random act that inspired me to pay them forward.
