现在是听力试音时间。

M: Hello. International Friends Club. Can I help you?

W: Oh, hello. I read about your club in the paper today and I thought I'd phone to find out a bit more.

M: Yes, certainly. Well, we are a sort of social club for people from different countries. It's quite a new club—we have about 50 members at the moment, but we are growing all the time.

W: That sounds interesting. I'm British actually, and I came to Washington about three months ago. I'm looking for ways to meet people. Er, what kinds of events do you organize?

M: Well, we have social get-togethers, and sports events, and we also have language evenings.

W: Could you tell me something about the language evenings?

M: Yes. Every day except Thursday we have a language evening. People can come and practice their languages—you know, over a drink or something. We have different languages on different evenings. Monday—Spanish; Tuesday—Italian; Wednesday—German; and Friday—French. On Thursday we usually have a meal in a restaurant for anyone who wants to come.

W: Well, that sounds great. I really need to practice my French.

M: OK. Well, if you can just give me your name and address, I'll send you the form and some more information. If you join now you can have the first month free.

M: Yes. Do you have any more tickets for the concert on Friday night?

W: Do you mean the Rock "n" Roll Revival Show? Yes, we still have some $ 30 tickets left.

M: Great. OK, by the way, what time does the show start?

W: It starts at 8:00 in the evening.

M: And what time does it end?

W: Well, there are four bands, so it'll probably end at 12:00 in the evening.

M: After school? I've got to study for the chemistry test tomorrow.

W: Don't worry. The test will be easy.

M: Er... I don't know. What time is the film?

W: Four fifteen.

M: I think I'll stay back in school and do some review first. Then I'll join you.

W: OK. We'll get the tickets first. You meet us at Kelly's Corner at four o'clock. We'll have some ice cream there before the film starts.

M: Let's go to the bookstore in St. George after the film. There's a sale and I'd like to get a book.

W: OK. See you later.

M: Well, Jenny, the school year is almost over. We just have two more weeks before exams. What do you plan to do this summer?

W: I'm going to teach English to some foreigners in the university's community service program.

M: That sounds interesting. Don't you need to speak a foreign language for a job like that?

W: No, I don't. I just have to present the language simply and give the students a chance to practice speaking.

M: Come to think of it, that's the way I was taught to speak Chinese. But speaking Chinese didn't help me learn to read and write Chinese.

W: Those students won't want to read and write English, at least not now. They are more interested in speaking.

M: You sound very knowledgeable about all this. How do you know so much?

W: I took a Teaching English as a second Language course last year when you were in China. I've also talked with the experienced teachers quite a lot. I think I would like to be an ESL teacher when I graduate.

M: Er... yes. I'm going to be teaching a course in...

W: Well, come on then. Right. Here's the living room, next to the kitchen as you can see. There's the TV.
Oh, please keep the volume down, and turn it off if no one's watching. And if you could try to keep this room neat... it's for everyone so...

M: Yes, of course. And, I see there's a phone there. Is it OK to call home?

W: Yes, but you'll have to call collect and keep calls short, a couple of minutes or so. Or use the pay phone at the end of the road.

M: OK. Right, I see. And is it OK to use the phone anytime? Ah, there's a time difference, so if I have to call late at night or something...

W: That's fine, but late at night you should talk quietly.

M: Yes, of course.

Dear John,

I'm writing to tell you ~~with~~ a piece of good news. A lecture about traffic safety was to be held at the school hall at 2 pm on Saturday. You are invited to attending it. You are expected to arrive a few earlier so that you will have some extra time to prepare for your speech. I can talk about the traffic rules we should obey and the dangerous of breaking them. If necessary, I can translate that you speak into Chinese so that it can be better understanding.
understood

There is no doubt that your speech is of great benefits to all of us. I'm looking forward to your attendance.

One possible version:

Dear Peter,

I'm writing to tell you something about my deskmate. His name is Wang Shun, who is a nice boy. He likes reading Chinese classics and playing football, while singing is his favorite. He is easygoing and warm-hearted. It's typical of him to help others around the school, including me. He helps me a lot with my English study and teaches me to play football as well. It is his help that makes me step forward.

He is the first person I have viewed the perfect one. What he has done has impressed me so much. The things I learn from him will be very useful in my life.

Yours,
Li Hua
